

Teenage Moms

Ansambom Melanie, born 04/04/2003. Returning to school in form 5 at St Maria Goretti College Njinikom. Granted teenage mother assistance in scholarship as part tuition

(No Pic)

Magdalen Lumwi, born 07/04/2002 in Bafut dropped out of school because of the war. Granted single mother assistance in scholarship as part tuition.

Binwie Joy, from Menteh Nkwen will continue school at Mendah Comprehensive college Nkwen. Also benefiting from the single mother scheme for part tuition.

Melanie Boghuma from Bali put to birth on September 20th 2021. Mother and child are doing fine. Thanks to the CHHA support scheme for pregnant teenage vulnerable girls, she did her prenatal consultations.

Melanie smiles as news of CHHA assistance for delivery bills is given to her.

Melanie feeds her new baby.

Mrs. Loveline of the Ghwong Health Center caters for the young mother and bab

The new CHHA baby.

Needy kids from Dschang in the West Region of Cameroon were given CHHA scholarship in basic school books and other necessities. About 50 pupils in Bali Nyongha are already selected for scholarship this accademic year. Many pupils have also been earmarked for scholarship around Bamenda already. Details shall be available next month.

Part tuition has been paid for 3 pupils and two students from Bafut.

Ambrose Foing from Njinikom has been granted scholarship in part tuition in form 3, at the St Maria Goretti College Njinikom

Lonely Elders.

Mama Singny Anastasie from Dschang received foodstuffs from CHHA to help her cater for the needy children granted scholarship above. She is the grandmother of the orphans presented above.

CHAHANZA secretaries attends work shop on sheep farming as a possible project to sustain the Association. Sharing livestock is a project commonly used around to assist vulnerable and very needy families. The project works with the handing over the gift principle as Paramount

Pose with other participants from other charity organisations during the seminar.

Practical lessons at the Nsutebu ranch during our visit.

