

CHAHANSA REPORT FOR FEBRUARY 2021

Rev. Father Valentine, curate at Njimafor parish Bamenda Archdiocese poses with the president at the inaugural ceremony.

Guests await the arrival of the dignitaries for the inauguration of the office.

Quarter head of Ntahmbahn Nsongwa, Mr. Humphrey Ngongeh hands scholarship to Miss Nges Benadette of the University of Bda, during the inaugural ceremony. (below) Priest welcomes the fon.

His Royal Highness Foo Ngwadezah III, flanked by the president and Fr. Valentine on the left and His Highness Ndee Atangamuwah III of Mbatu. The Traditional and Religious authorities who presided over the ceremony of the inauguration of the CHAHANSA office, February 3rd 2021.

The Fon poses with beneficiaries (elderly orphans). Mama Paulina Neh Awah (in red pullover). She lost her arm from a fire in which she fell. Her only child died few years back and her home destroyed by bush fires. Mama Monica Bih Nching(in brown blouse) is 90 years old. NO children nor home of her own. Living with relatives and on gifts offered her.

Pa Cletus Kika, the quarter head of Ndangh quarters , congratulates the president.

Felix Bukwara shows his own excitement.

Local support promised to the president.

Mrs Aghien Anguh, whose husband is handicapped with a burnt hand received scholarship for her children.

February 5th 2021 CHAHANSA Presented support to 32 displaced needy school children and teachers of Catholic School Menteh in Nkwen, Bda III Subdivision. This was made up of 9kgs of rice and 10 tablets of soap to each child, and to all the teachers.

Cross section of beneficiaries brandish loaded bags while fellow schoolmates gaze on with admiration. (Below) President poses with teachers of C.S Menteh.

The excited Head teacher of C.S Menteh, Mrs Prudence Ngegha Ndifor poses with the president, prays for the Good lord to bless CHAHANSA and the benefactors. She wishes and appeals that many more children in and around her school would benefit in future.

Rev. Father Andrew Tamutan a Calasazian missionary is in charge of the Seminary of his congregation at Menteh Nkwen. Many displaced persons found refuge in this rural neighbourhood because of accommodation and farmland.

Fr Tamutan introduced the president to the Head teacher Mrs Prudencia Ndifor. During a working session the head teacher and her staff were briefed on the activities of CHAHANSA. They proceeded to select the most needy children in their classrooms with the priest.

Fr. Andrew Tamutan poses with the displaced needy children of Catholic School Menteh. January 18th 2021

