

March 2022 Picture report

A/ Scholarship

Cross-section of pupils at Catholic School Menteh Nkwen, benefiting from CHHA Scholarship

Rev Father, Manager of Schools in Mandah Parish poses with CHHA and beneficiaries. He expressed his joy that his predecessor informed him of the benevolence of CHHA to the Children

Victory Ateh Ngeh from Awing returned to school during the second term thanks to CHHA support

B/ Teenage Mothers

Binwie Joy, teenage mom schooling at Mandah Nkwen poses with Head Teacher of CS Menteh and CHHA volunteer after a working visit to check on her and her baby.

Frinwie Joyceline teenage mother learning trade at work at the workshop at Futru Nkwen where she is training.

CHHA volunteer charts with trainer of Joyceline and assess her progress

Samba Theresia selected for the single teenage mother startup trade and her baby

CHHA start-up envelop handed to Samba Theresia by volunteer

Samba Theresia presents blinds, pillows, bedsheets, produced with CHHA start-up package. She promised to be a shining example for the Association

C/Lonely Elders

Mr. Kinkoy Blassius receives aid in walking crutches from CHHA. This he says will resolve the problem he has suffered from for long

Greetings from lonely Elder Mrs. Anna who is also suffering from visual impairment. During a brief visit. She expressed thanks for the concern CHHA is showing.

Mama Afouka was very happy to have a chat with CHHA volunteers. She is doing her best to perform the exercises prescribed as therapy for the stroke she suffered. She sent thanks to CHHA donors for their love and concern.